The Queenslander Pictorial.

Humour in the Fighting Lines.

CATERING "IN STYLE" ON ACTIVE SERVICE.

A snapshot in a British camp-kitchen somewhere in Northern France.

A SMALL DONKEY AND A BIG TASK.

We cannot but admire the resourcefulness with which the French soldiers have borrowed the donkey and hitched it to the disabled motor lorry, although it would have been better to lead the donkey instead of driving it.

TRANSPORTS AT ALEXANDRIA WAITING FOR TROOPS.

The cross shows the famous lighthouse—the largest in the world. The cross in circle indicates Ras-el-tin, the Sultan's Palace. All the ships are over 10,000 tons. We are indebted for the picture to Mr. W. E. Parry Okeden, who has two sons with the Australian Expeditionary Forces.
